Homestay families are paid a generous monthly stipend. All of his tuition and fees are paid in advance and he has his own spending money and insurance. It's ok for Buddy to share a room with someone of the same gender and close to the same age. We require homestay families to speak English at home and all families must complete the Safe Environment Training and a background check. For more information, contact Patrick WorriLOW at 387-3913 or e-mail at Patrick@oklahomestay.com.

The Assistance Coordinator will also assist you in making a formal complaint to the Archdiocese, arranging a personal meeting with the Archbishop or his representative and in obtaining support and pastoral counseling. Calls are confidential with the following exceptions: Any allegation of sexual or physical abuse or neglect concerning those who currently are minors must be reported to the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (1-800-522-3511) as required by Oklahoma laws and Archdiocesan policies. Any allegation of sexual misconduct must be shared with the proper Archdiocesan authorities. Local law enforcement agencies may also be contacted. Contact the appropriate law enforcement agency (for example the local police). Contact local child protection agencies, a private attorney and or a support group.
