Parent/Teacher Conference Day is tomorrow. All-day Kid's Club will be at St. Mark Catholic Church in the Lake Room. The drop-in child care will be in the band room. No children will be allowed in hallways or conferences, unless requested by the teacher. Please check the lost-and-found table for items you are missing.

The Halloween Carnival is tomorrow from 4:30 to 6:30. Thank you to all those who have volunteered to work the games and food booths. Check the flyer on the school's web page under "News and Events" for more information. More candy is needed for prizes. Please bring your contribution to the box in the office. If you have purchased tickets, but have not received them, they will be waiting for you at the "Will Call" table at the carnival.

Cookies are needed for the "Cookie Walk" at the carnival! Please bring baked goods by noon on Friday to the designated table in the front atrium area.

Attention 7th Grade Parents: Your help is needed with the Haunted House at tomorrow's carnival. Please call Patti Otto at 503-3349 if you can assist with this event.

The Book Fair begins tomorrow in the Library. It will continue all next week.

Archbishop Beltran will be at All Saints on Wednesday, October 28th. Please arrive early for Mass. The Archbishop will begin Mass at 8:20, and then visit classrooms at the school.

Our accreditation visit went very well! Thank you to everyone for helping to complete our student files and Safe Environment files.

Yoga Mats Anyone who has previously taken Personal Fitness and did not take their yoga mat with them will need to claim it by October 30th. After that date, they will be donated to another school. Thank you.

Sports- If you are a coach for an ASCS team that is currently competing please email me by Wednesday, October 28th to give me an update of your team -how things are going and when your next game is. Thank you. Mrs. Sizemore

The City of Norman is recommending Trick-or-Treat be observed in Norman on Friday, October 30th.

4th Grade Girls - If you are interested in playing Catholic League basketball please call Skylar Kinsey (550-9382) or Yvonne Kinsey (833-1735). The League begins in late November-early December; but practices are beginning and are scheduled for Sundays 1-2 and Tuesday nights 7-8.

Thank you for all sponsors and donors for their support of the 2009 All Saints Golf Tournament - Summer Splash. The Tournament earned net profits of $8,500 to benefit our PTO. The tournament could not have been a success without the help of these sponsors and donors, including the volunteers.

Congratulations to Jackson de la Garza and the OKC Jr. Hockey Pee Wee team for winning the AA Silver Stick Regional Championship in Dallas. Next up is Port Huron and Michigan in January for Nationals.

Roman Holiday Planning Meeting Oct. 28th at 7:00 pm at the West side Louie's Restaurant: Come join the fun planning this year's Roman Holiday event! Health Screenings are next Thursday, October 29th, for grades Pre-k through 5. Permission forms are in folders today and must be returned to your child's teacher by next Thursday morning if you would like your child to be screened.

If you are planning to be a coach or an assistant coach of an All Saints sports team, you must have a completed Safe Environment file. This will include watching the Safe Environment video, signing a Code of Conduct, completing a volunteer application and reference check, and submitting an online application for a background check with the Archdiocese. Please call the office to ensure that your file is up-to-date or if you have any questions.

Have a great weekend!
