Monday Reminders

Donations for Haiti collected on last Friday's jeans day amounted to over $1,550!! Thank you so much to our generous families!

Ident-a-Kid is this Thursday, January 28th. Please return your envelope if you wish to purchase cards.

Be sure to RSVP for the Stock the Bar party this Friday! Some of the Colonial Fair homes from this year's fifth grade students will be auctioned at Friday night's event to families who will need them in the coming years. Come see other auction items, bring your donations, and enjoy the party! RSVPs are accepted through the school web site or with the brochures that were mailed to school families. The wish list is on the school web site.

Babysitting for Stock the Bar – Just a few notes for Parents: We will open the door at 6:45 p.m. If you are working the event and need child care please let me know in advance. Pizza will be served for dinner. Non-caffeine and non-sugar drinks will be served. Please do not send other drinks with your child. If your child has a special diet, please send the food and we will prepare for them. Snacks will be Chex Mix, popcorn and sugar-free jello. If your child has specific allergies to foods let Mrs. S know. The movie, "Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs" will be shown and possibly another movie. Parents will need to sign in at the front door with Mr. S. When picking up your child, please sign them out, as well. Students who have cell phones will not be able to use them, so please leave them at home. If you need to reach me call 219-4472. 8th grade students who are working will be able to have their phones for parental calls only. Babysitting is free, but donations will be accepted for the 8th grade class legacy project. Be sure to RSVP to Mrs. S by this Thursday.

Spelling Bee Word Lists are available on the Archdiocesan web site. Go to www.catharchdioceseokc.org, click on Chancery Offices, then Education, then Catholic Schools, and then on the Spelling Bee yellow sign.

Catholic Schools Week begins on Sunday, January 31st. Please see the attached flyers for information about the canned food drive and family prayer project (remember, they are due TOMORROW!). If you can help hang family projects around the school this Thursday or Friday, please contact Ms. Black or Ms. Lancaster. Information about the Sock Hop that is scheduled for February 5th will be in this week's Eye on the Eagle.

Talent show dress rehearsal is Thursday Feb. 4th at 3:30. This involves just Pre-K-4th grade performers. All performers must attend and bring all costumes, music, equipment, etc. The talent show is the next morning, Friday, Feb. 5th, at 8:30 am. Parents are invited.

Singing Valentine Grams are being offered by the Musical Theatre classes for $25 each. The groups will be singing for unsuspecting Valentines around Norman and Oklahoma City on February 12th. Extra forms with information are available in the school office.

Please disregard any Jostens Yearbook mailer you may have received in the mail. It was sent by mistake. Last year's yearbook will be available in about 3 weeks. Orders for next year's book will be taken during enrollment week.

Please see the attached pages for information on Catholic Schools Week and how you can help with the IDEAL Homes Extreme Makeover.

All Saints is Celebrating Catholic Schools Week next week!

Each class is challenged to collect 100 cans of food by Friday, February 5th.

Help your child's class by sending a donation next week.

All canned food will be donated to United Way pantries as part of the IDEAL Homes Extreme Home Makeover.

Catholic School's Week Family Projects are due submitted tomorrow (see the flyer on the school web site for instructions). We will be hanging them throughout the school. They will be available for all to view next Friday, February 5th, during the Sock Hop.

We look forward to seeing everyone next Friday. Come dance the night away!
